

Trust on the basis of facts.

Trust is created based on historical facts. These facts and figures are validated and confirmed by auditors. It's important that industry and society can rely on them.